Care...at its best

Grap, Wuethrich Named to Board of Directors

Memorial Medical Center recently welcomed two new members to their board of directors. Kevin Grap, owner of 107.5 The Rock radio station in Neillsville, and Trevor Wuethrich, Vice President of Grassland Dairy in Greenwood.

"Memorial Medical Center is an important health care facility and a major employer in our area. I look forward to working with the excellent board, administration, medical staff and employees to keep it moving forward and serving communities with care at its very best," commented Grap.

"I have a strong sense of stewardship for the community and the children of the community. I'm excited to support the staff of MMC in further developing as a first-class health care facility," stated Wuethrich.

The board is composed of eleven members, including two physicians: Armando Pacis, MD – General Surgery and Grace Cruz-Apolinario, MD – Family Practice. The remaining seven members represent communities in Memorial Medical Center's service area: Bob Barth, Allan Hoesly, Jeanette Steiner, Rick Szymanski, Wendy Sigurdson, Len Hamman, and Bill Weiler.

"Our board affirms growth strategies and financial objectives. Members with several years of experience ensure that we continually grow, improve, and do what's best for patients. And new board members will bring fresh perspectives. They'll have questions that will lead us to self-examine our strategies and ultimately reinforce our approaches," stated Scott Polenz, CEO of Memorial Medical Center.
